

OAKBROOK SUMMER 2016 READING ASSIGNMENT:
Rising Juniors (11th) in English III CP or Honors

Choose one of the books listed below. Read the unabridged version and respond to the appropriate prompt in a well-written essay due on the first day of class. Do not consult secondary (outside) sources. Bring your essay and a copy of the book to class on the first day of school. See the attached guidelines.

Jane Eyre* by Charlotte Bronte

Erica Jong, in her "Introduction" to the Signet Classic edition of Jane Eyre, states:

"The universe of JANE EYRE operates according to female laws. Jane's success as a heroine depends on her breaking all the rules decreed for nineteenth-century women." (p. viii).

To what extent is Jane Eyre an appropriate example of female empowerment for the twenty-first century? In other words, what qualities of female empowerment do you see in Jane? Does she fall short in any way? Use specific examples and direct quotations from the novel to support your conclusions.

Lord of the Flies* by William Golding

Choir boys are stranded on a tropical island. Initially, their situation feels like a welcome reprieve from school while they await rescue from adults. As time goes on, events on the island take a grim turn. Choose a character (Ralph, Piggy, Simon, or Jack) and identify three ways that the character changes over the course of the novel. Use at least three examples to describe each change. What do these changes reveal about human nature? Use direct quotations.

MS. AUTENZIO'S 10 GUIDELINES FOR WRITING YOUR ESSAY

- 1. Have a thesis sentence that clearly states the idea(s) discussed in your paper.
Remember, your thesis must be specific! Do not simply restate the topic.

Sample topic: How does the Beast change in Beauty and the Beast?

AN EXAMPLE OF WHAT NOT TO DO:

In Beauty and the Beast, the Beast changes a great deal.
(Change is assumed in the topic—be specific!)

AN EXAMPLE OF WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

In Beauty and the Beast, Beauty's love redeems the Beast, changing him into a handsome prince; more importantly, the power of the Beast's love for Beauty transforms him into a kind and unselfish person who is worthy of Beauty.

UNDERLINE YOUR THESIS SENTENCE.

- 2. Begin paragraphs with specific topic sentences that refer back to ideas in your thesis.

Topic sentences should not include examples or quotations.

AN EXAMPLE OF WHAT NOT TO DO:

In Beauty and the Beast, the Beast releases Beauty so she can help her father, even though it means he will remain a lonely beast.
(This is an example, not a main idea.)

AN EXAMPLE OF WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

In Beauty and the Beast, the Beast reveals how much he has changed when he makes unselfish choices out of love for Beauty.
(This is the main idea of your paragraph. Now use examples such as the one above to support it.)

UNDERLINE TOPIC SENTENCES.

- 3. Remember, incorporate direct quotations within your sentences. Do not let them "float" in your essay.

AN EXAMPLE OF WHAT NOT TO DO:

William Cullen Bryant explores death in his poem "Thanatopsis." "The last bitter hour."
This quotation refers to the death we must all face.

AN EXAMPLE OF WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

In "Thanatopsis," William Cullen Bryant explores the "last bitter hour" (9), that hour of death which comes to all people.

- 4. When using direct quotations, cite the author and page number in parentheses after the quotation.

EXAMPLE: Because Jody does not understand Janie, Janie's life with him becomes monotonous and unfulfilling. She begins to feel like "a rut in the road" (Hurston 72); Janie has no hope for the future.

- 5. Remember to italicize long works of literature, such as novels, dramas, and epic poems. Short stories and poems are placed within quotation marks.

- 6. Your essay must have an introduction, at least three body paragraphs, and a conclusion.

- 7. Do not use contractions.

- 8. Do not use first or second person (I, we, you, us etc.).

- 9. Your essay must be in MLA format, double-spaced in Times New Roman 12-point font with one inch margins.

- 10. Include an MLA Works Cited page.
